About This Content

Mad Jack

A new, fully voice acted, hero unit, Mad Jack, will be made available for deployment in the Defense in Depth and Sector Defense modes. Mad Jack will actively and randomly taunt the enemy, escalating the fight, but may also provide additional Command Points, improving the player's tactical options.

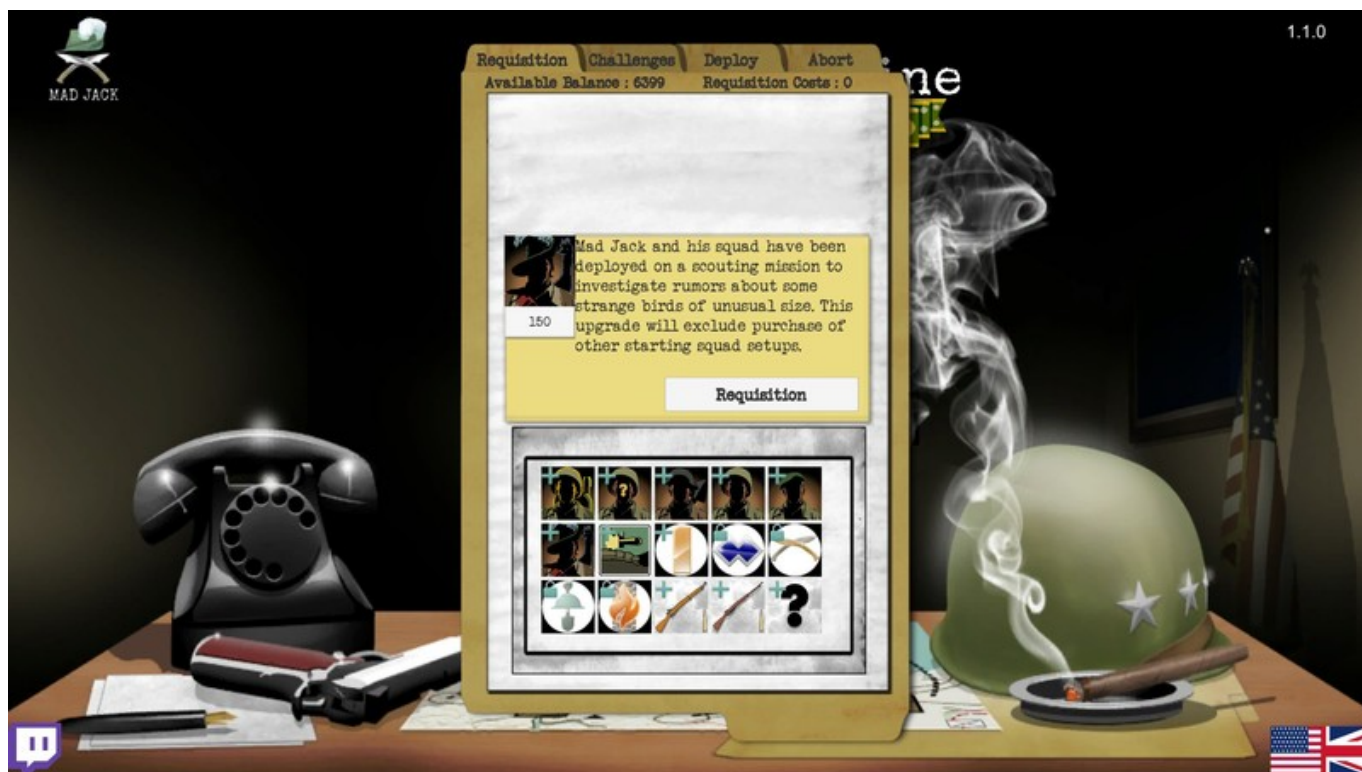

Emu War 2

Emu War 2 variants of the Defense in Depth and Sector Defense modes will be made available. In these modified variants, the Emu Nation has sent its best to fight alongside the Imperial Japanese. Face off against deadly Emu soldiers, capable of killing a man with a single kick. All ribbons and medals benefits and eligibility are maintained on these modes.

For the price it's honestly an insta-buy. Gives you some extra things to do in the form of fending off the Emu Horde. Mad Jack also gives you what is effectively a Sarge alternative and you will find that even though his taunts bring more pain down on you he is more than capable of holding his own (and the random points are nice - makes for some interesting on-the-fly strats).
